
INTERNAL COMPLAINT POLICY

California Pacific Charter Schools (“School”) adopts this Internal Complaint Policy to afford all employees of the School the opportunity to seek internal resolution of their work-related concerns. All employees have free access to Human Resources, the Executive Director, or the Board of Directors to express their work-related concerns.

Specific complaints of unlawful harassment, discrimination, and retaliation are addressed under the School’s “Prohibiting Unlawful Harassment, Discrimination, and Retaliation” policy.

Internal Complaints

(Complaints by Employees Against Employees)

This section of the policy is for use when an employee raises a complaint or concern about a coworker. If reasonably possible, internal complaints should be resolved at the lowest possible level, including attempts to discuss/resolve concerns with the immediate supervisor. However, in the event, an informal resolution may not be achieved or if the complaint is serious in nature against the supervisor, the following steps will be followed by the Human Resources manager:

1. The complainant will bring the matter to the attention of the Human Resources manager as soon as possible after attempts to resolve the complaint with the immediate supervisor have failed or were not appropriate; and
2. The complainant will reduce their complaint to writing, indicating all known and relevant facts, in the School’s Internal Complaint Form. The Human Resources Manager or designee will then investigate the facts and provide a solution or explanation.
3. If the complaint is about the Human Resources Manager or Executive Director, the complainant may file their Internal Complaint Form with the President of the School’s Board of Directors, who may then confer with the Board and may conduct a fact-finding investigation or authorize a third party investigator on behalf of the Board. The Board President or investigator will report their findings to the Board for review and action, if necessary.

This policy cannot guarantee that every problem will be resolved to the employee’s satisfaction. However, the School values each employee’s ability to express concerns, and the need for resolution without fear of adverse consequences to employment.

Policy for Complaints Against Employees

(Complaints by Third Parties Against Employees)

This section of the policy is for use when a non-employee raises a complaint or concern about an employee. If complaints cannot be resolved informally, the complainant may file an Internal Complaint Form with the Human Resources manager (or Board President if the complaint concerns the Human Resources manager or Executive Director) as soon as possible after the events that give rise to the complainant's concerns. The written complaint should set forth in detail the factual basis for the complaint.

In processing the complaint, the investigator shall abide by the following process:

1. The investigator shall use their best efforts to talk with the parties identified in the complaint and to ascertain the facts relating to the complaint.
2. In the event that the investigator finds that a complaint against an employee is valid, the School may take appropriate disciplinary action against the employee. As appropriate, the School may also simply counsel/reprimand the employee as to their conduct without initiating formal disciplinary measures.
3. The School's decision relating to the complaint shall be final unless it is appealed to the Board of Directors. The decision of the Board shall be final.

General Requirements

1. Confidentiality: All complainants will be notified that information obtained from the complainants and thereafter gathered will be maintained in a manner as confidential as possible, but in some circumstances, absolute confidentiality cannot be assured.
2. Non-Retaliation: All complainants will be advised that they will be protected against retaliation as a result of the filing of any complaint or participation in any complaint process.
3. Resolution: The School will investigate complaints appropriately under the circumstances and pursuant to the applicable procedures, and if necessary, take appropriate remedial measures to ensure effective resolution of any complaint.
